PROGRAM

Day 2: From Rome to Cassina - 257 km / 160 miles

We depart Rome, navigating tangential routes and a brief stretch of highway. In Tivoli, we'll join the SS5 Tiburtina, an ancient Roman consular road, passing through Arsoli, with views of its fortress and Oricola Castle in the distance. Our journey takes us to Cervara di Roma, climbing into the Simbruini Mountains toward the medieval village of Subiaco. Along the famed "Road of Monasteries," we'll admire Santa Scolastica and San Benedetto amidst rugged, picturesque landscapes. From Jenne, we'll ascend Serra Sant'Antonio Pass, before

Day 1: Arrival in Rome

Welcome to Italy! Upon arrival in Rome, meet at the designated hotel for check-in. Spend your free time relaxing or exploring the Eternal City before our safety briefing. In the evening, enjoy a welcome dinner at a traditional Italian restaurant, savoring the classic cuisine of Lazio.

continuing to Cassino. This historic town is famed for Montecassino Abbey, one of the world's most renowned monastic sites.

Highlights: Arcinazzo plateaus, Simbruini Mountains, Montecassino

Day 3: From Cassino to Matera - 318 km / 198 miles

Today's long yet scenic route offers breathtaking views as we traverse highways cutting through Italy's verdant countryside. Experience the vastness of the SS90 road and the striking Murge landscapes. En route, we'll pause at Gravina di Puglia, perched dramatically over a limestone gorge. Our day ends in Matera, the city of "stones". Prepare to be captivated by its ancient cave dwellings and unique architecture, as tomorrow is dedicated to exploring this UNESCO World Heritage Site.

Highlights: SS90, the Murge region, Gravina di Puglia

Day 4: Matera (Rest Day)

Discover Matera with a local guide who will unveil the city's hidden gems. Wander through steep alleys and marvel at cave dwellings carved into the rock, blending ancient ingenuity with natural surroundings. Visit the ravine for stunning vistas, as if suspended in time. Tonight's dinner is in a charming trattoria nestled within a rock-hewn setting, where you'll savor authentic regional flavors.

Highlights: Guided tour of Matera, local cuisine

Day 5: From Matera to Maratea - 268 km / 166 miles

Departing Matera, we follow the SS7, another historic Roman road, through villages like Irsina, Grottole, and Tricarico. The "Piccole Dolomiti Lucane" mountains rise before us, offering pristine landscapes and winding roads. Continuing through Accettura, Grumentum, and Corleto Perticara, the scenery shifts between unspoiled nature and forgotten paths. Finally, we reach the Tyrrhenian Sea and Maratea, known as the "Pearl of the Tyrrhenian" for its stunning beaches and panoramic views.

Highlights: SS7, Dolomiti Lucane, Maratea

Day 6: From Maratea to Amalfi Coast - 270 km / 168 miles

The journey begins along the breathtaking SS18 coastal road, carved into cliffs with dazzling blue seas below. As we traverse the Cilento National Park, we'll pass Marina di Camerota and Palinuro, both steeped in myth and natural beauty. From Montano Antilia, Cilento's highest village, the SS18 offers sweeping views of the sea. Before reaching the Amalfi Coast, we'll stop at Acciaroli and Castellabate, ending the day in Positano, where stunning cliffs meet emerald waters.

Highlights: SS18, Cilento National Park, Positano

Day 7: Rest Day in Amalfi Coast

Spend a leisurely day exploring Positano, famed for its pebble beaches and charming streets lined with boutiques and cafés. Visit the Church of Santa Maria Assunta, known for its Byzantine icon and colorful majolica dome. For an unforgettable experience, opt for a day trip to Capri. This iconic island boasts dramatic landscapes, luxurious shops, and authentic Italian charm.

Highlights: Positano, optional Capri excursion

Day 8: From Amalfi Coast to Pompeii to Caserta - 117 km / 73 miles

Today's highlight is Pompeii, a city frozen in time by the eruption of Mount Vesuvius in 79 AD. Explore its remarkably preserved ruins, including ancient streets, villas, and temples. Later, we continue to Caserta, a vibrant city renowned for its Bourbon Royal Palace, an 18th-century masterpiece of opulence and grandeur.

Highlights: Pompeii, Caserta

Day 9: From Caserta to Rome - 216 km / 134 miles

Our final leg takes us along an alternative scenic route brimming with curves and captivating views. We'll return to Rome in the afternoon to hand over the bikes and conclude the journey.

Highlights: Scenic routes, Rome
